Report on Centenary Birth Celebrations
of the College Founder Sri Murthy Raju dated 16.12.2019

The Centenary Birth Celebrations of the College Founder Sri Murthy Raju were organized in a festive mood by the college in association with the local community and people's representatives. The celebrations began with garlanding the statue of the great Gandhian, followed by the speeches of the speakers on the dais. All speakers lauded the outstanding contribution of the leader who championed the cause of education, particularly girls' education by establishing about 60 educational institutions across the united state of Andhra Pradesh. A few students also shared their feelings about the Gandhian leader. The celebrations ended with cultural events and distributing prizes to the winners.
