Policy Statement

E-governance occupies a lion's share of the college administration and management. Right from the highest authority at the Commissionerate level to the incharge of the department at the institution level, it plays a key role in effective planning, execution and monitoring of the policies in place.

Objectives

1. To make every information of the government available to all in the public interest.
2. To narrow the gap between the people and the government in all the services of the government and to reduce the dependence of the people on the bureaucracy.
3. To create a cooperative structure between the government and the people
4. To seek help and advice from the people, to make the government aware of the problems of the people.
5. To increase and encourage people's participation in the governance process.
6. To establish transparency and accountability in the governance process.
7. To reduce government spending on information and services.
8. To make use of e-governance in the areas of administration, finance, accounts, admissions, scholarships and examinations
