

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Department of English is organizing an invited lecture on “Significance of Ulysses” in today’s world on 30.03.24.

INVITED LECTURE

In addition to the regular teaching by the existing faculty, lectures by the invited faculty from other institutions & organizations reinforce students’ learning levels and widen their horizons of knowledge.

SCHVPMR
GOVT.
DEGREE
COLLEGE
GANAPAVARAM

SIGNIFICANCE OF ULYSSES IN TODAY’S WORLD

The poem ‘Ulysses’ was written by Alfred Lord Tennyson in 1833. The following lines from the poem continue to inspire generations and generations to wake up from inertia and set out for the exploration of life regardless of result.

How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use!

30.03.24

CHIEF GUEST: Dr. P. Nirmala Kumari
Principal, GDC, Ganapavaram

Special Guest for Invited Lecture:
Sri K.S. Ratna Kumar,
M.A. Eng., M.A. Phil., B.Ed., C.T.E. (R.I.E. Mysore)
Lecturer in English, SKR Govt. Degree
College (W), Rajahmundry

Dr. T. Akki Raju, In-charge,
Dept. of English, GDC, Ganapavaram