

❖ Running Dictation Competition for I BA Students on 10.09.2024

On the occasion of “International Literacy Day - 2024”, the dept. of Economics conducted a Running Dictation Competition for I BA students. Wrote a short paragraph and put it up on the classroom wall. Then, split the participants into pairs, with one as the writer and one as the runner. The runner needs to run to the paragraph, memorize the text, run back and dictate it to the other student, who writes it down. It continues till the whole text completes. And the paragraph is..

International Literacy Day will be celebrated under the theme of "Promoting multilingual education: Literacy for mutual understanding and peace".

There is a pressing need to harness the transformative potential of literacy for promoting mutual understanding, social cohesion, and peace. In today's world, in which multilingualism is a common practice for many, empowering people by adopting a first language-based, multilingual approach to literacy development and education is particularly effective for its cognitive, pedagogical, and socio-economic benefits. (Text taken from UNESCO International Literacy Day - 2024 Concept Note)

Eleven teams participated in the competition and A. Navya & K. Neelima stood first. It took 22 minutes for them to complete the dictation. The event helps students to know their capacities of memory, reading, and pronunciation. Dr. K. Swarupa Rani, Lecturer in Economics detailed the students about the theme of ILD 2024 and its importance in today's context at the end.
