Venue: Department of Botany, SCHVPMR Government Degree College, Ganapavaram

Date: 24.09.2025

Organized by - Department of Botany and Youth Red Cross Society

The 10th Ayurvedic Day Awareness Program was successfully organized at SCHVPMR Government Degree College, Ganapavaram to highlight the importance of Ayurveda and its principles for health and well-being. The event aimed to create awareness among students about the relevance of Ayurveda in daily life and the need for preserving traditional knowledge systems for a healthier future.

The program was graced by the Principal, Dr. P. Nirmala Kumari, along with the Vice Principal, Dr. K. Swarupa Rani garu, and the IQAC Coordinator, Sri K. V. Ganesh Kumar garu. Other distinguished participants included Sri N.V.N.B. Srinivasa Rao garu, Lecturer in Chemistry, Sk. Moin Ansari garu, Lecturer in Chemistry, Sri P. Bhaskar garu, Lecturer in History and Dr. Sk. Parveen garu, Lecturer in Zoology. The program was organized by Dr.Ch.Chaitanya, Lecturer in Botany and Sri Ch.Rajababu, Lecturer in English and convenor of YRCS committee.

Awareness Program:

As part of the celebration, an awareness session on the principles of Ayurveda was conducted, emphasizing the holistic approach of Ayurveda in balancing body, mind, and environment. The speakers highlighted the preventive, promotive, and curative aspects of Ayurveda and its significance in modern lifestyle.

Plantation Drive:

Following the awareness program, a plantation drive was undertaken in the college premises to promote the conservation of medicinal plants and encourage sustainable living practices. This activity symbolized the integration of Ayurveda with environmental protection.

Participation:

Around 30 enthusiastic students actively participated in the program and the plantation activity, making it a memorable and impactful event.

Conclusion:

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of the faculty, students, and organizers in making the 10th Ayurvedic Day Awareness Program a grand success.

As per the reference cited above, Ministry of Education requested Collegiate Education to observe the 10th Ayurveda Day on 23rd September.The Ministry of Ayush has designated the All India Institute of Ayurveda*(AIIA),Goa as the nodal institution for coordinating the celebrations.The Government of India has decided to celebrate Ayurveda Day annually on this date to coincide with the autumnal equinox which symbolizes natural balance, a core principle of Ayurveda.The theme for this year's celebration is "Ayurveda for People and Planet" which highlights Ayurveda's role on both human health and ecological well being.

In this regard all the Principals of Government Degree colleges are requested to conduct the following activities:

- Organize essay writing,quiz, poster presentation on the subject of Ayurveda
- Conduct Plantation drives for medicinal plants
- Conduct awareness programs on Ayurveda Principles
- Digital resources and information about the activities can be found at <https://ayurvedaday.org.in>

Hence Principals are requested to encourage the students and staff to participate and make the program success.
