

REPORT ON FRUIT DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM on 05.12.2025

Organized on the Occasion of International Volunteer Day – 2025 by the department of Economics in association with the Department of Social Work. The Department of Economics, in association with the Department of Social Work, SCHVPMR Government Degree College, Ganapavaram, organized a Fruit Distribution Program for the out-patients of the Primary Health Center (PHC), Ganapavaram on the occasion of International Volunteer Day – 2025. The event reflected this year’s global theme: “Every Contribution Matters.”

As part of this initiative, students prepared theme-based display cards highlighting the importance of volunteerism and community service. They voluntarily purchased fruits and ORS drinks and distributed them to the patients visiting the PHC. A total of 21 students (I & II BA), two faculty members - Dr. K. Swarupa Rani, Lecturer in Economics & Dr. G. Venkata Rao, Lecturer in Social Work and Dr. Omkarnath, Assistant Civil Surgeon, PHC Ganapavaram, actively participated in the program.

During the event, Dr. P. Nirmala Kumari, Principal, SCHVPMR Government Degree College, appreciated the students for their thoughtful contribution and encouraged them to continue engaging in activities that support social development. She also highlighted the significance of volunteerism in strengthening community well-being and promoting a culture of compassion and service.

This program provided students with an opportunity to understand the value of community engagement, extend support to those in need, and practically apply the spirit of volunteerism. The event concluded successfully with positive feedback from the beneficiaries and the PHC staff.
