Programme on Implementation of Women's Reservation Bill, 2023

STREE SHAKTI

(Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam)

Date & Time of Event:

13 April 2026, 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Venue:

IQAC Room

Theme of the Event:

“Stree Shakti – Empowering Women through Political Inclusion and Socio-Economic Transformation”

The programme was organized with the objective of creating awareness among students about the significance of the Women's Reservation Bill, 2023 (Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam) and to promote meaningful dialogue on women's empowerment. The event also aimed at linking national-level policy initiatives with the impactful women welfare schemes of the Government of Andhra Pradesh under the Maha Shakti initiative.

The deliberations during the programme revolved around the following core aspects:

- The need for immediate implementation of the Women's Reservation Bill to ensure equitable political representation.
- The transformative role of women-centric welfare schemes in Andhra Pradesh in strengthening economic independence.
- The persistent under-representation of women in legislative bodies and the socio-cultural barriers contributing to this gap.
- The success stories of women in Panchayati Raj Institutions and the necessity to extend such representation to Parliament and State Assemblies.
- The role of women as key contributors in achieving the vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047 and Swarna Andhra @ 2047.

Programme Details & Proceedings:

The programme commenced with an opening address by Dr. P. Nirmala Kumari, Principal, who emphasized the importance of empowering women through both policy support and societal change. She highlighted that true development can only be achieved when women actively participate in decision-making processes.

The session was coordinated by Dr. G. Venkata Ramana, Lecturer in Telugu, who ensured smooth conduct of the programme and encouraged active student involvement throughout the session.

Sri K.V. Ganesh Kumar, IQAC Coordinator, addressed the gathering and stressed the importance of institutional initiatives in creating awareness about national policies and fostering responsible citizenship among students.

A series of insightful talks were delivered by faculty members:

- Dr. Ch. Chaitanya, Lecturer in Botany
👉 Women as Pathbreakers for Viksit Bharat @ 2047 & Swarna Andhra @ 2047
- Dr. G. Venkata Ramana, Lecturer in Telugu (Coordinator)
👉 Success of Women in Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) and the Need to Extend it to Parliament & State Assemblies
- Sri N.V.N.B. Srinivasa Rao, Lecturer in Chemistry
👉 Under-representation of Women in Policy-Making and Structural/Societal Barriers
- Smt. P. Rani Durga, Lecturer in Commerce
👉 The AP Context: Impact of Women Welfare Schemes under Maha Shakti Initiative on Socio-Economic Empowerment

Student Engagement Activities:

The programme was highly interactive and participatory. Students actively engaged in:

- Extempore speeches on women empowerment themes
- Open discussions and Q&A sessions
- Sharing views on the importance of political representation for women

These activities encouraged critical thinking, public speaking, and awareness among students. The best-performing students were appreciated on the spot, enhancing enthusiasm and participation.

Participation:

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from a large number of students along with faculty members. The active involvement of students made the session vibrant, reflective, and impactful.

Resolution Adopted:

At the conclusion of the programme, all participants unanimously adopted a resolution:

“We, the students and staff of S.Ch.V.P.M.R. Government Degree College, Ganapavaram, expresses our strong support for the immediate implementation of the Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam, 2023, to ensure adequate representation of women in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies, thereby strengthening democratic values and inclusive governance.”

Pledge:

All participants collectively took a pledge to:

- Promote gender equality in all spheres of life
- Support women's empowerment initiatives
- Advocate for increased participation of women in governance and leadership

The participants also endorsed the message:

#ISupportImmediateImplementationOfReservationForWomenInLokSabhaAndStateLegislativeAssemblies

Outcome of the Programme:

- Enhanced awareness among students regarding the Women's Reservation Bill, 2023
- Improved understanding of the link between economic and political empowerment
- Encouraged students to actively participate in democratic processes
- Strengthened institutional commitment towards gender equality and inclusive development
